BEFORE THE
FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

No purpose would be served by specifying a separate qualifications issue against Glendale in this proceeding. Qualifications issues were specified against Trinity Christian Center of Santa Ana, Inc. (Trinity) in the Miami proceeding. Based upon the facts before them, the Commission and the staff decided not to add an issue in this proceeding, but to condition Trinity's application upon final Commission action in the Miami proceeding. See Hearing Designation Order, n.1. If the Presiding Judge decides any action is needed based upon the issue added in the Miami proceeding, he should condition a grant of Glendale's Monroe application upon final Commission action in the Miami proceeding. It would be illogical to have the same Presiding Judge try the same issue twice in two different proceedings. Trinity is a party to the Miami proceeding, so it will have every opportunity to litigate Glendale's qualifications. If the Commission decides that Glendale should be disqualified in the Miami proceeding, it can then evaluate whether further action should be taken in this proceeding. The same procedures should be established for evaluating Glendale's qualifications as are being used to evaluate Trinity's qualifications.

Accordingly, Glendale asks the Presiding Judge to accept the attached amendment.

Respectfully submitted,
